

THE YPO voice March, 1999

---

TOP ITEMS

- ◆ Fairchild Media Group, owned by Thomas Fung, was named one of four 1998 Business Achievement Award winners by the Richmond Hill Chamber of Commerce in Ontario. Fairchild was named for its outstanding performance and contribution made to the community in the last year.
- ◆ Fairchild Television, a division of the Fairchild Media Group., owned by Thomas Fung, was named one of five "Award of Excellence" winners in the 1999 Nursing In The Media awards competition, recognized by Registered Nurses Association of Ontario. Fairchild Television was awarded for the outstanding calibre of its news reports.
- ◆ Barry Guld and Don Mattrick are helping to launch a "new unique Vancouver based Venture fund called Greenstone Venture Partners which, with a bridge to Silicon Valley, will focus on early stage technology companies in Canada and the US."
- ◆ The BC Chapter wishes the best of luck to Bart Tichelman and his family who are moving to Atlanta in August. Bart will be headquartering Statpower Technologies in Atlanta and directing operations from there.
- ◆ Bob Cross, founder of Whytecliff Capital Corporation which specializes in financing technology companies, has recently taken Stockgroup.com public. Stockgroup.com is an Internet company specializing in providing information about small cap companies. 49er, Les Landes, is President and CEO.
- ◆ 49er, Roger Earle, advises that Internet Sports Network, Inc. (OTC BB:ISNI) has finalized its merger with Birchtree Capital Partners, a public company. It has completed a US $9 million private placement and the acquisition of SportsMark Promotions Inc. (SPI), a leading provider of fantasy sports and investment challenge contests. Patrick Earle, Co-Founder and CEO, also announced that its 100% wholly-owned subsidiary ISN California, Inc. has finalized its merger with Pickem Sports Inc., a contest operator and software developer.